KANAN'S PROFILE

Kanan Naheta believes that everyone has the ability to change, upgrade and succeed in life.

Her Certifications as Image Consultant and Personal Stylist from Sterling Style Academy New York and Training in Soft Skills and Communication from ICBI India, certified by SQA Scotland are the tools she uses to unleash the power of her clients inner potential and transform them into more confident and positive beings filled with renewed energies.

Kanan is also qualified in Fashion and Apparel Design from PVP, SNTD University Mumbai where she trained under Industry stalwarts and went on to work at Sheetal Design Studio with Hemant Trevedi's Team before moving to Dubai.

Living and working in a globally relevant city like Dubai for 15 years, gave her the exposure to independent styling and image makeover projects with varied nationalities before making the big move to Mumbai.

Encouraging people to reach their potential comes easy to Kanan, as the amalgamation of her creative skills see fruition in the customised makeover sessions she offers her clients. This one-to-one consultation is done over a series of sessions giving them the transformative power to build their personality
